Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/206427093/

Downloaded on Oct 20, 2025

Rarus and St. Helena Reinstated.

CHICAGO, May 6.—The reason for the failure of Rarus to appear according to engagemont at the meeting of the Hartford track, for which he had been suspended, but was reinstated yesterday by the Board of Review of the National Trotting Association, was that he changed hands after the engagement was made, having been purchased by William H. Vanderbilt. It is probable that Rarus will appear again this year on the turf in public. In the case of the mare St. Helena, formerly owned by E. S. Stokes, and now the property of Cornelius J. Vanderbilt of Hartford, Conn., which was suspended for non-payment of a fine incurred by a technical violation of the rules, the Board has decided that she should be reinstated upon the payment of the fine by Mr. Stokes. In the "no time" cases the Board made the following general ruling: No horse that won a heat or made a dead heat in such races should thereafter and prior to this meeting be allowed to enjoy any premiums which may have been won on the grounds of the National Association. Also, that in those cases wherein the trespass of the rules did not involve conspiracy on the part of the owner or driver, the horses be restored to privileges from date, and the cases reserved for future action as to the guilty parties. In any cases where conspiracy or fraudulent collusion was shown, it was ordered that the horses be disqualified from trotting on the National Association's tracks.

Rarus and St. Helena Reinstated

Clipped By:
C_St_Reed
Oct 20, 2025

Copyright © 2025 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.